HONORING NATIONAL SMALL CITIES DAY

HON. BOB BARR

OF GEORGIA

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 13, 2002

Mr. BARR of Georgia. Mr. Speaker, Friday, June 14, 2002, marks the first "National Small Cities Day" in honor of smaller communities of our country. I would like to help make our colleagues aware of this event and the significant role that small cities play in making up our great Nation.

An overwhelming majority of Americans live in cities with populations under 25,000. These small cities form the backbone of our Nation and contribute enormously to the character of all Americans. It is in these cities that we find the spirit of America in which we take so much pride and give so much to protect.

Living in a small city affords Americans the ability to involve themselves in the building of a community through involvement with local schools, government, and the daily activities which go into raising their community's children to be responsible, virtuous citizens.

Small cities across America will be joining each other today to recognize the contributions to our way of life made by their communities and those who live in them and help them thrive. We should all join them in recognizing and thanking our citizens who comprise these communities for all that they have done and continue to do every day.

RECOGNITION OF KEEPING THE PROMISE

HON. DARLENE HOOLEY

OF OREGON

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 13, 2002

Ms. HOOLEY of Oregon. Mr. Speaker, I rise today to express my sincere appreciation for those men and women currently serving in our armed forces, in particular those who are engaged in the war against terrorism.

My home state of Oregon welcomed ships from the U.S. Navy, U.S. Coast Guard and the Canadian Fleet during our annual Rose Festival held this past week. I would like to thank Captain Terry Bragg, Commodore Destroyer Squadron One, his staff and crew aboard the USS Paul F. Foster. The Paul F. Foster and crew will soon be deployed in support of Enduring Freedom.

Also I would like to thank Rear Admiral Erroll M. Brown, District Commander of the 13th Coast Guard District, the Men and Women aboard the U.S. Coast Guard Cutter Hamilton for their appearance at this event.

I can assure you that the leadership, morale, and dedication of all the officers aboard these ships were of the highest caliber as well as those men and women who serve aboard these ships. I can truly, say, the defense of our nation is in good hands when we have such professionals as those aboard the ships that visited Oregon this past weekend. All serve our country with pride and all Americans should be proud of them.

When we ask people to put their lives on the line to protect our country, we have a profound obligation to honor our promises to those whose service has kept our nation free. The men and women who have served our country so honorably know best that freedom is never free, that it is only won and defended with great sacrifices.

Once again I want to extend my gratitude and pride to all the men and women who serve our country, in the armed forces.

You make us all proud.

CONDEMNING THE PRIVATIZATION AND COMMERCIALIZATION OF OUR AIR TRAFFIC CONTROL SYSTEM

HON. NEIL ABERCROMBIE

OF HAWAII

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 13, 2002

Mr. ABERCROMBIE. Mr. Speaker, I join with my colleague, Mr. BLUMENAUER and the others, in condemning the executive order issued late last week which will allow our air traffic control system to be commercialized and privatized.

We in Congress passed legislation strengthening our public transportation systems to help insure greater safety and the prevention of terrorism. We have recently federalized airport security and baggage inspection. Are we, at the same time, turning over absolutely essential air traffic control to the private sector, which utterly failed in airport security? How is this going to increase public confidence in air travel?

It is outrageous to propose actually privatizing a government service as essential as assuring the safe and orderly operation of the thousands of airline flights daily. When the private sector cannot perform an important and vital service adequately, it becomes essential that the government assure that it is performed to public expectations. That has become the case with air travel. It flies in the face of logic that any steps be taken toward dismantling the air traffic control system and turning functions over to the private sector.

I have been working with and debating officials in the Administration on the merits of privatizing government functions. As a member of the House Armed Services Committee, I have been deeply concerned about the outsourcing of military jobs for many months. Clearly, this is another attempt to bring the private sector in to perform duties carried out by the civil service and other professionals.

Mr. Speaker, I am not against the private sector nor making a profit. But there are instances where making profits should be a totally secondary consideration. Profit must not be the bottom line in assuring public air travel safety.

Perhaps privatizing OMB would be a good next step. It might bring some level of common sense to the Administration.

WEST GENESEE WILDCATS, 2002 NEW YORK STATE LACROSSE CHAMPIONS

HON. JAMES T. WALSH

OF NEW YORK

IN THE HOUSE OF REPRESENTATIVES

Thursday, June 13, 2002

Mr. WALSH. Mr. Speaker, I rise to celebrate a victorious day for West Genesee High School as both the men's and women's lacrosse teams captured the New York State Lacrosse Division 1, Class A Championship titles. It was a memorable day that will go down in history for the Wildcats, as both teams soared triumphantly to the top.

The day began as the women's team traveled to Cortland, New York to defend their state title, and this is exactly what they accomplished. The team ended their undefeated season with a 15-11 win. Later that afternoon at Hofstra University, the men's lacrosse team regained the State title with an exciting 10-9 victory. As Coach Mike Messere stated "It was one of the most exciting games I've seen."

West Genesee Lacrosse has always had the reputation for a stellar program, and as displayed this past weekend, the program continues to generate gifted athletes. These students work year-round to master the sport, and because of their relentless hard work, dedication, and passion for the game, they came out true champions.

I am proud of these devoted athletes, and I commend the coaching staff, parents, and entourage of supporters who traveled this long road with them. This type of outcome does not happen overnight, nor is it a result of just one season. It takes years of dedication to get such results, and this entire team should be proud of their accomplishments.

I would like to acknowledge the athletes and coaching staff who brilliantly represented their school, county, and state this past weekend:
